LATE NEWS.

REDUCED RATES TO CHICAGO.

New York, Nov. 16.—The presidents of the Eastern Trunk Line association, after a long session today at the Central building, at which they discussed the rates to be charged for railroad tickets to and from Chicago during the World's fair, adopted the following:

First.—On all regular trains scheduled at thirty-five hours or less between Chicago and New York, present rates will be maintained.

Second.—During the exposition on all trains scheduled at more than thirty-five hours, 20 per cent reduction may be made.

DON'T LIKE ANARCHISTS.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The government's bill, providing for the imposition of severe penalties upon anarchist newspapers that incite to violence, and generally adding to the stringency of the press laws, was introduced in the chamber of deputies today. An exciting debate followed, but the chamber adjourned without taking a vote on the measure.

MADE A BIG DEAL.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—The first estimate of the amount lost by the city through the irregularities in the water office was made today which was $600,000 for the year 1892 alone. The books, according to expert accountants, Holbrook, are in a condition of hopeless demoralization, owing to the erasures and lack of system on the part of clerks, Lorimer, Dwyer, and Brokosky.

TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The meeting of the Southern railway and steamship association was brought to a close this morning. Col. J. W. Thomas, of Nashville, Tenn., occupied the chair. Only routine business was transacted. After a session of half an hour the meeting adjourned.

THE POPE'S INTENTION.

ROME, Nov. 16.—As soon as Mr. Cleveland's administration has been inaugurated, the Vatican will open negotiations for the establishment of a special legation at Washington and the reception of a papal nuncio.

A GLASS FLOOR GIVES WAY.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 16.—One of the oldest and best known men on the police force in this city is Captain Michael Walsh now turnkey at Central Station. Last night the Captain was walking over the floor of the station a part of which is heavy glass when he slipped and at the same moment the glass broke and the officer shot through the opening toward the cellar, twenty feet below. He caught about the hips and hung suspended until help reached him. He is dreadfully bruised and scratched and has several bad cuts and is laid up with his injuries.

THE CHOLERA MAY COME.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—A treasury circular today says: "Cholera still exists, and precautions cannot be materially relaxed. All foreigners, immigrants and travelers must be detained for examination, even if they be cabin passengers. It is not considered necessary to detain the vessels." The order goes into effect today.

WEAVER'S WARNING.

DES MOINES, Nov. 16.—Gen. Weaver today issued an address congratulating his followers on the splendid showing made by the third party, and sounded a note of warning as to what he terms "the vicious legislation which may be expected from the party in the ascendancy."

CATHOLIC CONVENTION.
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Catholic archbishops of the United States and Canada are in secret session here, Cardinal Gibbons presiding. Cardinal Satolli is present. Archbishop Salpointe, of New Mexico, is represented by his brilliant and venerated coadjutor, Rev. P. L. Chappelle.

ALLEN-WEST.

The Methodist Episcopal church was nicely decorated and trimmed on the occasion of the Wertz and Allen wedding which took place last night. The bride wore a cream silk dress made princess and the groom the regulation evening suit, and both looked "quite sweet." Miss Myrtle Sinnock and the sisters Allen, wore full evening costumes. After the wedding the happy couple drove to their future residence on Ulbarri street where the presents were literally piled up, and where a few guests were charmingly entertained.

We wish the young couple a pleasant voyage over the ocean of life. May the star of hope shine brightly o'er their way and when the cloud of trouble comes may its kindly beams scatter them and when the winds of adversity blow may their bark be found always near some sheltering harbor.

Cards have been received for the marriage of James Edward Elder and Miss Mable Goodale Kellogg, at Albuquerque, Nov. 29th, 1892. Mr. Elder was a former resident of Las Vegas and is now a prosperous merchant of Albuquerque. He is a brother of Mrs. H. T. Vail, and his many friends join with the Free Press in congratulations and good wishes.

The young girls who will give the operetta, "Little Red Riding Hood," Friday Nov. 25th, deserve great credit for the happy and willing manner in which they responded to the call to do this missionary work and as the admission price is low it is earnestly hoped that they will have a large attendance. Don't forget the date, November 25. Tickets 15 cents, two for 25 cents.

IT WILL BE A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST.

The London Financial News says it thinks that the long expected boom in American railway securities may come now at any hour. The American speculators, it declares, have not yet grasped the potential source of traffic expansion that will be afforded by the Chicago Columbian Exposition, $350,000,000 of foreign money will be left in the America as the harvest of the exposition. American will be literally burdened with money seeking investment.

BOSTON SHOCKED.

Boston has been placarded too conspicuously of late with theatrical bill posters, of women in tight, lately the woman's club held a meeting and vigorous denunciation of these displays were made. This petition was prepared and will be laid before the board of aldermen, bearing the signatures of the representative women in this city.

"We, the undersigned, do hereby earnestly protest against the display of indecent theatrical posters and show bills, believing that such play bills as are at present shown are mostly offensive to any clear-minded man and women, and deeply corrupt to the unformed standards of youth. We do, therefore, respectfully urge that in the licensing of theatrical companies, there shall henceforth be a strict surveillance upon the posters which such companies intend to display, and a careful ruling out of all those which are an offense against modesty and decency."

"My old partner got himself into a scrape some time ago in the early days of our practice," said the judge.

"I went into the office one morning and saw the judge talking to a man who was not over intelligent. I did not hear what they were talking about, but just heard the judge say as I entered the door: 'There is no law that will cover the case. Nothing will do any good except a shotgun.' The man went out and nothing more was thought of it. I happened to go up the street a short time later, and as I was walking along I saw the same man coming down carrying a shotgun. I asked him what he was going to do and he said that he was going to shoot a certain man, as the judge had told him that the shotgun was the only law that would apply to the case. I hurried to the judge and told him that he had better go out and stop the fellow or there would be murder. The judge was greatly excited and went after the fellow. He had a hard time convincing him that he was joking, but finally succeeded in getting him to go home and put up his gun."

Las Vegas Democrats have good gall. Catron is the principal owner of the electric light plant of that town, but that made no difference to the Democrats, so they strung all the poles with Joseph streamers. It was a good use to put the poles to, but it was certainly gall.—Socorro Advertiser.

There is a strong undercurrent of socialism in our politics which must be taken account of. There were hundreds of men who voted in this city yesterday to down the rich men, and they do not care much how, so long as it is done.—Springfield (Mass.) Union.
